

WILD ARTS For Teens

Join arts educator Megan Fitz for an exciting summer workshop in which we will engage our intuitive and imaginative capacities as a way of deepening our relationship with the wildness in us and around us. Camp activities will include puppet and mask-making, romping and exploring, gardening, dance and movement, self/identity exploration, and more. We will practice cultivating self-trust and inner-knowing, while also connecting with the community.

Ages: 13 and older

Dates: Week of July 23 and Week of July 30

Hours: 9AM to 4:00 PM  (Drop off and pick up from Camelot Academy)

Tuition: $375/ per week ($25 Early bird discount if paid in full by March 12)